

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794NAMES: WALL
PLACES: Sharon,
To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.entry from

HUSBAND

Place

Born
Chr.
Marr.
Died
Bur.
HUSB.
FATH.
HUSB.
OTHER

WIF

Born
Chr.
Died
Bur.
WIFE
FATH.
WIFE OTHER HUSB.SEX
M F9
10
11

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Isaac

O

WALL

984

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

ISAAC OLIVER WALL AND MARCIA ANN GLENN AND
FANNY J. YOUNG CLYDE

Isaac Oliver Wall was born at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on October 21, 1849. When small, his parents, William Madison Wall and Nancy Haws, moved to Provo, Utah, where he spent his childhood. He and his brother Bill (as he called him), with other boys of the neighborhood, would go to Provo Lake and swim for miles on a raft of grass and weeds that they made. Isaac O. Wall crossed the plains in 1850, settling in the old fort down below Provo. He lived there until 10, then attended school at the old Seminary. He was baptized a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1857, at the age of eight. He moved up the Provo River below Charleston, Utah, in the spring of 1860. He spent a great deal of time herding cattle and hunting with the Indians. From Charleston he moved to Heber City because of Indian trouble and from there to Wallburg, Utah, once again after the trouble ended. He helped to build roads and bridges in Provo Canyon and all over Wasatch County. He also built school houses and meeting houses in the county.

He enlisted in the Blackhawk War in May, 1866, and went to Duchesne with a company of men under Captain William Wall, his father, to make a treaty with the Indians under Brigham Young's

p983

instructions. He helped build a sawmill in Center Creek and worked one summer on the Union Pacific Railroad, building roads across the continent. William M. Wall died in 1870 (1869-GDM), and Isaac had the responsibility for the family. The grasshoppers took their crops that year and he had to go to Nevada to work to support the family. He was there five years. Returned and married Marcia Ann Glenn the next fall in Wallburg, Wasatch County, Utah, on November 26, 1876, Daniel Bigelow performing the ceremony. Two years later they were married in the Salt Lake Temple. He also worked in the Manti Temple. He lived in Wallburg and helped to build up that part of the country. He farmed and raised cattle. In 1891 he broke up a farm on Sagebrush Flats, northwest of Wallburg, with very little to work with. He couldn't have gotten along without the help of the Lord. He built a nice home, barn and surroundings, and reared a family of seven children. He taught a Sunday School class and was president of the Elders' Quorum for several years. He was justice of the peace, president of the amusement board, sheriff of Wasatch County in 1907, then moved to Heber the following spring and was sheriff for eight years, and city marshal two years. The first separation in the family came when his wife passed away, at the age of 57, on her birthday.

For two years the youngest girls, Amy and Ruby, kept house for him. On January 15, 1919, he married Fanny J. Young Clyde in the Salt Lake Temple. She was also a good and faithful wife. He built two modern homes on Third East Street in Heber City.

A very sad occurrence for him and his family was the death of his second daughter in Provo on January 25, 1927. She left three small daughters, her husband, relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death. Jessie was 46 years old.

He helped build two or three large schools, three church and seminary buildings at Heber City, besides helping in numerous other works to build up the area. He had the reputation of doing more than his share.

When he married Fanny Clyde he gave his two youngest daughters, to repay them for keeping house for him, a small house and lot. He decided it to them and later had it remodeled, using the rent to pay for the remodeling. The girls later sold the place. He would gladly have given a home to all his children had he been able to, as he was of that nature. He could never do enough for his family. He was a very generous and good-natured man.

At the age of 80, with Aunt Fan, who was then 70, they walked from Daniels to Heber, and neither complained, only of being lame.

He caught his heel in the rig on his back porch and hit his head and face on the cellar door as he fell over the steps. He bruised his shoulder and side, throwing his shoulder out of place, and it was a long time mending. He had another fall in 1932, which was the cause of a heart attack. He died at Heber City on May 14, 1932, at the age of 82.

Their children were: Edith, Jessie, Cecil, Mary Jane, Amy Grace, Harold and Ruby.

IER MARRIAGES

Husband
WifeIsaac O
Fannie JWALL
CLYDE

Friday, January 21, 1949

Payson Native, LDS Worker
89, Dies in Home at Heber

May 22-1949

Tribune Special

HEBER, May 23—Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie J. (Aunt Fan) Clyde Wall, 89, who died at her home here Sunday at 5 p.m. of causes incident to age, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Wasatch stake tabernacle, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, by Isabrand Sander, bishop of Heber Third LDS ward.

She was born March 31, 1860, in Payson, a daughter of Jonathan and Sarah Toomer Young. At an early age she moved with her parents to Heber where she had since resided.

On Dec. 26, 1877, she was married to John Clyde in the Salt Lake LDS Endowment house. He died in 1898. She was married to Isaac O. Wall in June, 1918 in the Salt Lake LDS temple. Mr. Wall died in 1932.

She served as president of the former Heber West LDS ward Young Women's Mutual Improvement Assn. and was a member of the Relief society. She belonged to Daughters of Utah Pioneers and Heber Shakespearian club.

She was founder of the first cleaning establishment in this county. Surviving are a son, John D. Clyde, Heber; three daughters: Mrs. Mae Bonner, Salt Lake City,

Mrs. Maude Goodwin, San Pedro, Cal., and Mrs. Afton K. Ligier, Reseda, Cal.; three stepdaughters: Mrs. Jennie Goodmansen, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Amy Nunley, Heber, and Mrs. Ruby Peterson, Downey, Cal.

Friends may call at the family home, 207 S. 3rd East here Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday to time of services. Burial will be in Heber city cemetery.

THE DEA

Fannie J. C. Wall

HEBER—Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie J. Clyde Wall, 89, who died Sunday, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Wasatch stake tabernacle, church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, by Isabrand Sander, bishop of Heber Third LDS ward. She had resided here since coming a child with her parents, Jonathan and Sarah Toomer Young. She was active in organizations of the LDS church. Burial will be in Heber cemetery. Friends may call at the family home, 207 S. 3rd East, prior to services.

NECESSARY EXPLANATIONS

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794NAMES: Henry Vmnn
PLACES: Sharon,
To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

HUSBAND

Place

Born
Chr.
Marr.
Died
Bur.
HUSB.
FATH.
HUSB.
OTHER

WIF

Born
Chr.
Died
Bur.
WIFE
FATH.
WIFE
OTHE
HUSB.SEX
M
F

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

45

46

47

48

49

50

51

52

53

54

55

56

57

58

59

60

61

62

63

64

65

66

67

68

69

70

71

72

73

74

75

76

77

78

79

80

81

82

83

84

85

86

87

88

89

90

91

92

93

94

95

96

97

98

99

100

101

102

103

104

105

106

107

108

109

110

111

112

113

114

115

116

117

118

119

120

121

122

123

124

125

126

127

128

129

130

131

132

133

134

135

136

137

138

139

140

141

142

143

144

145

146

147

148

149

150

151

152

153

154

155

156

157

158

159

160

161

162

163

164

165

166

167

168

169

170

171

172

173

174

175

176

177

178

179

180

181

182

183

184

185

186

187

188

189

190

191

192

193

194

195

196

197

198

199

200

201

202

203

204

205

206

207

208

209

210

211

212

213

214

215

216

217

218

219

220

221

222

223

224

225

226

227

228

229

230

231

232

233

234

235

236

237

238

239

240

241

242

243

244

245

246

247

248

249

250

251

252

253

254

255

256

257

258

259

260

261

262

263

264

265

266

267

268

269

270

271

272

273

274

275

276

277

278

279

280

281

282

283

284

285

286

287

288

289

290

291

292

293

294

295

296

297

298

299

300

301

302

303

304

305

306

307

308

309

310

311

312

313

314

315

316

317

318

319

320

321

322

323

324

325

326

327

328

329

330

331

332

333

334

335

336

337

338

339

340

341

342

343

344

345

346

347

348

349

350

351

352

353

354

355

356

357

358

359

360

361

362

363

364

365

366

367

368

369

370

371

372

373

374

375

376

377

378

379

380

381

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794
To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

NAMES: W
PLACES: She
To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

entry

NAME: W PLACES: She

HUSBAND

Born	Place
Chr.
Marr.
Died
Bur.
HUSB.
FATH.
OTHER WIF
Born
Chr.
Died
Bur.
WIFE
FATH.
OTHER SEX
M
F
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

ISAAC OLIVER WALL AND MARCIA ANN GLENN AND
FANNY J. YOUNG CLYDE

Isaac Oliver Wall was born at Council Bluffs, Iowa, on October 21, 1849. When small, his parents, William Madison Wall and Nancy Haws, moved to Provo, Utah, where he spent his childhood. He and his brother Bill (as he called him), with other boys of the neighborhood, would go to Provo Lake and swim for miles on a raft of grass and weeds that they made. Isaac O. Wall crossed the plains in 1850, settling in the old fort down below Provo. He lived there until 10, then attended school at the old Seminary. He was baptized a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1857, at the age of eight. He moved up the Provo River below Charleston, Utah, in the spring of 1860. He spent a great deal of time herding cattle and hunting with the Indians. From Charleston he moved to Heber City because of Indian trouble and from there to Wallburg, Utah, once again after the trouble ended. He helped to build roads and bridges in Provo Canyon and all over Wasatch County. He also built school houses and meeting houses in the county.

He enlisted in the Blackhawk War in May, 1866, and went to Duchesne with a company of men under Captain William Wall, his father, to make a treaty with the Indians under Brigham Young's

p983

984

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

instructions. He helped build a sawmill in Center Creek and worked one summer on the Union Pacific Railroad, building roads across the continent. William M. Wall died in 1870 (1869-GDM), and Isaac had the responsibility for the family. The grasshoppers took their crops that year and he had to go to Nevada to work to support the family. He was there five years. Returned and married Marcia Ann Glenn the next fall in Wallburg, Wasatch County, Utah, on November 26, 1876. Daniel Bigelow performing the ceremony. Two years later they were married in the Salt Lake Temple. He also worked in the Manti Temple. He lived in Wallburg and helped to build up that part of the country. He farmed and raised cattle. In 1891 he broke up a farm on Sagebrush Flats, northwest of Wallburg, with very little to work with. He couldn't have gotten along without the help of the Lord. He built a nice home, barn and surroundings, and reared a family of seven children. He taught a Sunday School class and was president of the Elders' Quorum for several years. He was justice of the peace, president of the amusement board, sheriff of Wasatch County in 1907, then moved to Heber the following spring and was sheriff for eight years, and city marshal two years. The first separation in the family came when his wife passed away, at the age of 57, on her birthday.

For two years the youngest girls, Amy and Ruby, kept house for him. On January 15, 1919, he married Fanny J. Young Clyde in the Salt Lake Temple. She was also a good and faithful wife. He built two modern homes on Third East Street in Heber City.

A very sad occurrence for him and his family was the death of his second daughter in Provo on January 25, 1927. She left three small daughters, her husband, relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death. Jessie was 46 years old.

He helped build two or three large schools, three church and seminary buildings at Heber City, besides helping in numerous other works to build up the area. He had the reputation of doing more than his share.

When he married Fanny Clyde he gave his two youngest daughters, to repay them for keeping house for him a small house and lot. He deeded it to them and later had it remodeled using the rent to pay for the remodeling. The girls later sold the place. He would gladly have given a home to all his children had he been able to as he was of that nature. He could never do enough for his family. He was a very generous and good-natured man.

At the age of 80, with Aunt Fan, who was then 70, they walked from Daniels to Heber, and neither complained, only of being lame.

He caught his heel in the rug on his back porch and hit his head and face on the cellar door as he fell over the steps. He bruised his shoulder and side, throwing his shoulder out of place, and it was a long time mending. He had another fall in 1932, which was the cause of a heart attack. He died at Heber City on May 14, 1932, at the age of 82.

Their children were: Edith, Jessie, Cecil, Mary Jane, Amy Grace, Harold and Ruby.

IER MARRIAGES

Husband
Wife

Isaac O
Fannie J

WALL
CLYDE

Friday, January 21, 1949

Payson Native, LDS Worker
89, Dies in Home at Heber

may 22-1949

Tribune Special

HEBER, May 23—Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie J. (Aunt Fan) Clyde Wall, 89, who died at her home here Sunday at 5 p.m. of causes incident to age, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Wasatch stake tabernacle, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, by Isabrand Sander, bishop of Heber Third LDS ward.

She was born March 31, 1860, in Payson, a daughter of Jonathan and Sarah Toomer Young. At an early age she moved with her parents to Heber where she had since resided.

On Dec. 26, 1877, she was married to John Clyde in the Salt Lake LDS Endowment house. He died in 1898. She was married to Isaac O. Wall in June, 1918 in the Salt Lake LDS temple. Mr. Wall died in 1932.

She served as president of the former Heber West LDS ward Young Women's Mutual Improvement Assn. and was a member of the Relief society. She belonged to Daughters of Utah Pioneers and Heber Shakespearian club.

She was founder of the first cleaning establishment in this county.

Surviving are a son, John D. Clyde, Heber; three daughters: Mrs. Mae Bonner, Salt Lake City,

Mrs. Maude Goodwin, San Pedro, Cal., and Mrs. Afton K. Ligier, Reseda, Cal.; three stepdaughters: Mrs. Jennie Goodmansen, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Amy Nunley, Heber, and Mrs. Ruby Peterson, Downey, Cal.

Friends may call at the family home, 207 S. 3rd East here Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday to time of services. Burial will be in Heber city cemetery.

THE DEATH

Fannie J. C. Wall

HEBER—Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie J. Clyde Wall, 89, who died Sunday, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Wasatch stake tabernacle, church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, by Isabrand Sander, bishop of Heber Third LDS ward. She had resided here since coming as a child with her parents, Jonathan and Sarah Toomer Young. She was active in organizations of the LDS church. Burial will be in Heber cemetery. Friends may call at the family home, 207 S. 3rd East, prior to services.

NECESSARY EXPLANATIONS

МУЗЫКА

Born _____
Chr. _____
Marr. _____
Died _____
Bur. _____
HUSB. _____
FATH. _____
HUSB. _____
OTHER _____

WIF

Born _
Chr. _
Died _
Bur. _
WIFE
FATH
WIFE
OTHE
HUSE

SEX
M
F

2
---	--

3
---	--

4
---	--

5

6

7
---	--

8

[illegible]

10

11

1	2
---	---

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

Place

284

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

instructions. He helped build a sawmill in Center Creek and worked one summer on the Union Pacific Railroad, building roads across the continent. William M. Wall died in 1870 (1869-GDM), and Isaacs had the responsibility for the family. The grasshoppers took their crops that year and he had to go to Nevada to work to support the family. He was there five years. Returned and married Marcia Ann Glenn the next fall in Wallsburg, Wasatch County, Utah, on November 26, 1875. Daniel Bigelow performing the ceremony. Two years later they were married in the Salt Lake Temple. He also worked in the Manti Temple. He lived in Wallsburg and helped to build up that part of the country. He farmed and raised cattle. In 1891 he broke up a farm on Sagebrush Flats, northwest of Wallsburg, with very little to work with. He couldn't have gotten along without the help of the Lord. He built a nice home, barn and surroundings and reared a family of seven children. He taught a Sunday School class and was president of the Elders' Quorum for several years. He was justice of the peace, president of the amusement board, sheriff of Wasatch County in 1907, then moved to Heber the following spring and was sheriff for eight years, and city marshal two years. The first separation in the family came when his wife passed away, at the age of 57, on her birthday.

For two years the youngest girls, Amy and Ruby, kept house for him. On January 15, 1919, he married Fanny J. Young Clyde in the Salt Lake Temple. She was also a good and faithful wife. He built two modern homes on Third East Street in Heber City.

A very sad occurrence for him and his family was the death of his second daughter in Provo on January 25, 1927. She left three small daughters, her husband, relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death. Jessie was 40 years old.

He helped build two or three large schools, three church and seminary buildings at Heber City, besides helping in numerous other works to build up the area. He had the reputation of doing more than his share.

When he married Fanny Clyde he gave his two youngest daughters, to repay them

Husband
Wife

Isaac O
Fannie J

WALL
CLYDE

Friday, January 21, 1949

Payson Native, LDS W. 89, Dies in Home at Heber

may. 22-1949.

Tribune Special

— HEBER, May 23—Funeral ser—vices for Mrs. Fannie J. (Aunt —Fan) Clyde Wall, 89, who died at —her home here Sunday at 5 p.m.
—of causes incident to age, will be —conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in —the Wasatch stake tabernacle,
—Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-
—day Saints, by Isabrand Sander, w bishop of Heber Third LDS ward.
— She was born March 31, 1860,
—in Payson, a daughter of Jonathan
—and Sarah Toomer Young. At an —early age she moved with her —parents to Heber where she had —since resided.

On Dec. 26, 1877, she was married to John Clyde in the Salt Lake LDS Endowment house. He died in 1898. She was married to Isaac O. Wall in June, 1918 in the Salt Lake LDS temple. Mr. Wall died in 1932.

She served as president of the former Heber West LDS ward Young Women's Mutual Improvement Assn. and was a member of the Relief society. She belonged to Daughters of Utah Pioneers and Heber Shakespearian club.

She was founder of the first cleaning establishment in this county.

Surviving are a son, John D. Clyde, Heber; three daughters: Mrs. Mae Bonner, Salt Lake City,

Mrs. Maude Goodwin, San Pedro, Cal., and Mrs. Afton K. Ligier, Reseda, Cal.; three stepdaughters: Mrs. Jennie Goodmansen, Salt Lake City; Mrs. Amy Nunley, Heber, and Mrs. Ruby Peterson, Downey, Cal.

Friends may call at the family home, 207 S. 3rd East here Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday to time of services. Burial will be in Heber city ceme-

THE DEA

Fannie J. C. Wall

HEBER—Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie J. Clyde Wall 59, who died Sunday, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Washington stake tabernacle church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Leabron Samuels, bishop of Heber Third L.D.S. ward.

She had resided here since coming as a child with her parents, Jonathan and Sarah Toomer Young. She was active in organizations of the L.D.S. church.

Burial will be in Heber cemetery. Friends may call at the family home, 207 3rd East, prior to services.

IER MARRIAGES

NECESSARY EXPLANATIONS